

PERSONAL PRONOUNS

SAMPLE LESSON

Skill Area: Language Arts

Language Stage: Early Production

Outcome: Students will be able to replace a noun with a pronoun.

Materials: Pictures, card stock/paper

Procedure: Glue the pictures to the card stock or paper. On other pieces of the card stock, write words, verbs, etc. that together with the pictures will form a sentence, i.e., the, has a, and. Now create a sentence by using a combination of picture and word cards. Have the student read the sentence, i.e., "The mouse has cheese." Now cover the subject picture card and the definite/indefinite article. Ask the student to remake the sentence using the correct personal pronoun, i.e., "It has cheese."

Note: This lesson can also be used in teaching object pronouns.
